

To advance the Gospel of Jesus and His Kingdom into the families, neighborhoods, communities, and cities of America through spiritual generations of laborers living and discipling among the lost.

In an effort to develop a more Kingdom-like culture, we want to move toward . . .

- ▶ Our passion:
Loving the triune God
- ▶ Our rhythm:
Drawn into intimacy with God and thrust out in mission
- ▶ Our Kingdom lifestyle:
Living with righteousness, justice, mercy, truth, love, and grace
- ▶ Our aspiration:
To be a people and place of relationship, transformation, and mission

Our Calling

Strategic Leadership Tools

Direction: Move toward those without Christ in the harvest fields of America.

Vision: We long to see workers for the Kingdom next door to everyone who are partnering with God and others to transform families, neighborhoods, and communities all across America.

Strategy: To reach those without Christ, develop them into lifelong laborers who flourish in generational ministry, and help them transform their extended family, relational networks, neighborhood, and community.

Central Ministry Focus

Nurture and develop lifelong laborers who flourish in generational fruitfulness

Preferred Culture

Guiding Principles

- ▶ Obedience to Jesus and submission to His Kingdom
- ▶ Exercise compassion toward those in need
- ▶ Strengthen and encourage laborers where they live
- ▶ Multiply disciples, laborers, leaders, and communities
- ▶ Minister through family and relational networks
- ▶ Transform individuals, families, neighborhoods, and communities
- ▶ Create environments of safety, trust, and respect
- ▶ Pioneer new ministry